THE PROBLEM:

Northern Virginia faces a growing and often hidden crisis: human trafficking. With easy access to Dulles and Reagan Airports, major interstates, and rail lines, traffickers can move victims quickly and with little detection. Virginia now has over 555 Illicit Massage Businesses (IMBs), with 262 in Northern Virginia and 169 in Fairfax County alone, and they are not isolated crimes. IMBs anchor broader criminal networks involving drug trafficking, money laundering, and organized crime. Yet IMBs are only part of the picture. Familial trafficking, gang-controlled exploitation, and pimp-led operations equally target young people in our schools and universities. Over the last decade, more than 85% of the survivors Reset180 has served are U.S. citizens, American women and children from our own communities. Human trafficking in Northern Virginia is not a distant or foreign problem. It is happening here, in our neighborhoods, near our schools, and hiding in plain sight.

THE SOLUTION:

Reset180 was founded in 2014 in direct response to Northern Virginia's trafficking crisis, built in partnership with local law enforcement and the justice system. Over the last decade, Reset180 has impacted the lives of more than 1,100 victims and survivors, becoming the region's only organization exclusively dedicated to this population. Reset180's wraparound case management model provides trauma-informed therapy, legal representation, housing support, and financial assistance to survivors bring hope and restoration. Reset180's vision for the next 10 years is to end IMB operations in Northern Virginia and restore and empower hundreds of survivors. With 12 years of proven impact, deep community roots, and trusted law enforcement partnerships, Reset180 is uniquely positioned to make it a reality.

WHAT YOU MADE POSSIBLE LAST YEAR:

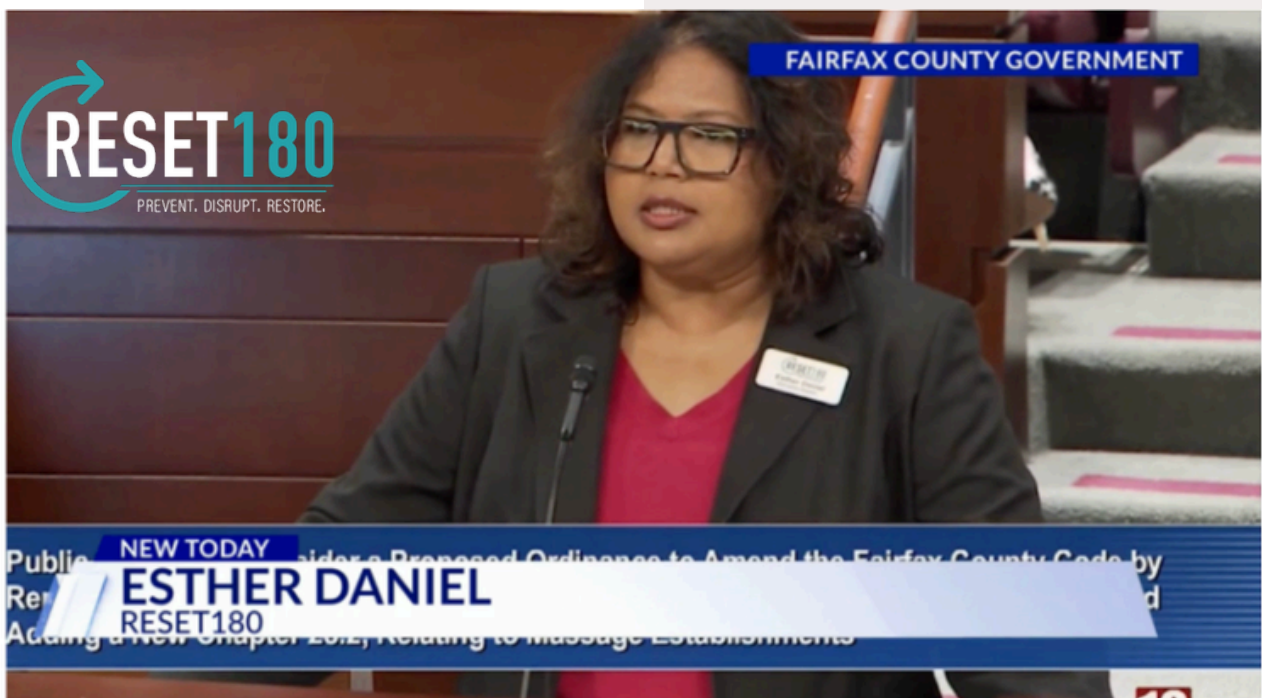

WHO IS RESET180?

HELP END THE CRIME OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

All proceeds from this auction benefit Reset180, a nonprofit dedicated to preventing and disrupting human trafficking and restoring survivors on their journey to healing and freedom.
